insurgencies from the south and human rights

CONTENTS

Editorial
Annalisa Oboe 3

Resistant repositioning: the production of revolutionary humanism
Patrick Williams 5

Sweetly dancing: an intercultural dialogue on the epistemic revolution of nonviolent insurgency
Giovanna Covi and Lisa Marchi 21

Notes on revolution and locality: a focus on Egypt in 2011
Marta Cariello 39

Shades of feeling: human rights, decoloniality, and Palestine
Luigi Cazzato 55

“When I see them I see us”: Palestinianness, Blackness, and new geographies of resistance
Olga Solombrino 71

EcoSimies of care: a proposal for decolonizing ‘sustainable development’
Gisela Carrasco-Miró 89

Tiananmen fiction: literary insurgencies in the diasporic Chinese community
Elisa Bordin 109

The comic book as a ‘place of mediation’: encounters between codes and perspectives in Etenesh. L’odissea di una migrante by Paolo Castaldi
Giada Peterle 123

Ceux qui traversent la frontière
Georges Didi-Huberman 145

BOOK REVIEW

L’interruzione postcoloniale come lacerazione del sapere
Miguel Mellino on Postcolonial Interruptions, Unauthorised Modernities, by Iain Chambers 155